

Marriage between man, woman is God's intention

In the beginning, when God created mankind and womankind, He created them with the ability to reproduce after their kind; and a fair inference would suggest that it was His plan and not ours. The institution of marriage did not originate with humanity; it has its origin within the sentient being of God alone.

All things that He created He called good; but there are some things God did not create. There are some things, which fall outside the order of God's sacred designs.

For instance, God created the human race and each one's ethnicity within the human race. Each one's ethnicity is sacred and should not be violated. God did not create racism. Racism is the byproduct of violating one's ethnicity; therefore it is a violation of that which is sacred. Another example would be sex.

God created sex and sexuality, or each one's gender. This would make the purpose of sex sacred and not to be violated. God did not create pornography, pedophilia, polygamy, bestiality or homosexuality. These abominations are the byproduct of violating the sexual boundaries and, therefore, it is a violation of that which is sacred.

MARK A. HUFFMAN

My Turn

Is even the natural order of creation not clear to any thinking individual? You would not be reading the newspaper if two of the opposite sex did not procreate, nor does it require the brain of an Einstein to decipher the LGBT communities' warped theory of relativism! How far will the LGBT community deviate from the clear definition of marriage and human sexuality illustrated in Genesis?

Should we accept the previous listed abominations into our churches and society, seeing the LGBT community justifies their proclivities to go beyond marital boundaries?

It appears to me that Eden's serpent of old has shed one skin and taken another. Irrespective of the unequal comparison in terms, the LGBT community clearly equates the treatment of a race during the civil rights movement, to that of being equal to their suppositional theory of discrimination against the homosexual.

This is a clear failure in logic to differentiate between the sacred and profane. Race is sacred, as is sex and neither should be violated. How do you treat sacred "race" and desecrate the other? If that question were to be answered honestly, the answer would reveal the violating of God's own sacred design concerning creation and its subsequent continuation.

Finally, the Holy scriptures are sacred and cannot be violated. Jesus did not come "as" a sacrifice for humanity. The Lord Jesus Christ came into this world "to be" a sacrifice for the "sins" of a fallen humanity.

When the Lord Jesus Christ comes again, He will be coming for His bride! What do the scriptures teach? Revelation chp.19v.7: "His wife ... has made herself ready."

In the first two chapters of the Bible, there is a man and women in paradise. In the last two chapters of the Bible, there is a man and women in paradise. The picture in the beginning reveals a wedding in the end. The bearer of the ring reveals to all that she is taken. As a ring comes full circle and picks up where it began, so the sacred ring of prophecy will fit the finger that points from Genesis to Revelation.

A marriage was in God's heart all along, a marriage between a man and a woman.

Mark Huffman is a resident of Gastonia.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Please include the writer's name, address and phone number (for verification purposes).

Letters are edited for length, accuracy, etc.

● Preferred length is 300 words or less.

Longer letters may be considered for "My Turn" columns.

● Writers are limited to one letter or column published every 15 days.

● The Gazette does not publish poetry, form letters, petitions or consumer complaints.

How to send them:

Mail: P.O. Box 1538 Gastonia, NC 28053

Fax: 704-867-5751

Email: gastongazette@gastongazette.com

Material submitted for publication becomes the property of the newspaper and is subject to reuse, in whole or part, in print, electronic formats and archives. Material is subject to editing and other changes.